Unauthorized Individuals, Groups or Entities Claiming to be Connected with PRC

This is to warn the general public against dealing with individuals or entities claiming to be connected with the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC), or using the name of its Officials, Personnel, and/or members of the PRC Boards, either by presenting fake calling cards and other identification cards, including the use of its official logos, for personal or financial gain, to facilitate and/or process the application and/or release of various PRC documents, or in promising examinees to pass the licensure examination.

The PRC follows its procedures and processes as enshrined in its Citizens Charter. The PRC disclaims all representations which are purportedly extended by these unscrupulous individuals.

The public is hereby directed to report these individuals, entities or groups representing, soliciting, asking money or any consideration, related to PRC transactions, or for facilitating PRC services and any other similar activities to the PRC ARTA Committee at arta@prc.gov.ph.

Further, the transacting public is advised to refer to the PRC Citizen's Charter on the requirements and timelines for the release of relevant documents. The PRC Citizen's Charter is conspicuously posted at the PRC premises and on the official website at www.prc.gov.ph.

The PRC will continuously take measures to protect the public from false information and fake documents provided by any unauthorized individuals, groups or entities.

Warning Against Fixers

The Professional Regulation Commission warns the applicants and Professionals against fixers who offer services to transact with PRC in their behalf by obtaining personal information, including username and password. PRC clients are advised to observe the following when transacting online:

1. APPOINTMENT SLOTS ARE FREE.
2. Do not allow anyone to have your password.
3. Change your password regularly.
4. Do not let other people create your online profile. Make sure that you create your own online profile and double-check your information to avoid the invalidation of your application due to wrong data/information stated.
5. Pay only to the authorized payment channels specified in the website.

Please be guided accordingly.

Submission of Original SPA or Original Authorization Letter by Authorized Representative and Maximum Number of Transactions that can be Accommodated by the PRC-ROs

Posted on 5 February, 2025

To ascertain the authenticity and validity of the Special Power of Attorney (SPA) and Authorization Letter, and not to expose the professionals' data or personal information to a person or individual whose authority to represent them is not duly determined, the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) informs the public that the additional requirement of a SPA or Authorization Letter to be submitted by the representative of concerned professionals shall be accepted only in its ORIGINAL FORM. Mere electronic copy or photocopies of said SPA or authorization letter shall not be considered proof of authority.

Also, considering the available resources and capacity of the PRC service centers, and pursuant to PRC Memorandum Order No. 93 (s. 2022), the maximum number of transactions per liaison officer or authorized representative per PRC Regional Office shall be determined/set by the concerned Regional Director.

For information on the maximum of transactions allowed for liaison officers or authorized representatives, transacting clients are advised to coordinate with the concerned Regional Office having jurisdiction over their appointment place.

For queries and concerns, please contact the concerned PRC Regional Offices through their email addresses which can be found at this link: <http://www.prc.gov.ph/regional-offices-contact-information> or through the Client Relationship Management System: <https://crms.prc.gov.ph/feedbackform>.
