Dear SSHS Pilot Implementers,

Greetings from the SSHS TWG Secretariat!

Please see the updates below concerning the new learning resources uploaded to the Bureau of Learning Delivery (BLD) Hub (blld.deped.gov.ph):

- Tawid Journal: a set of worksheets that teachers may assign to learners during the wellness break. Tawid is meant to help learners pause, reflect, and prepare themselves for the transition to the next term through reflection and metacognition.
- Electronic Class Records and School Form 9: the latest copies are also available on the Hub. Our team continues to address reported concerns, but given the diversity of school contexts and the different issues that may come up, we'd appreciate your help in mobilizing your IT officers to support schools and teachers with troubleshooting. This will also help us avoid making changes to the central files for concerns that may be specific to individual cases or local settings.

For any concerns or feedback that need BLD's urgent attention, please feel free to forward them to blld@depd.gov.ph.

For your information and guidance.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Technical Working Group on the Strengthened SHS Department of Education - Central Office
